

COVID-19 FAQ

1. Has the full-time employee hour requirement of the Affordable Care Act (“ACA”) been waived?

Date Added: 03/30/20

Answer: The ACA provides that all employee who work an average of 30 hours a week over the measurement period during a given year must be eligible to elect health insurance benefits in the following benefit year under an employer sponsored health plan. There have been no waivers of this provision.